

Privacy Statement

Our Principles

The Nicosia Marathon Series Ltd (Nicosia Marathon) recognizes the importance of the protection of its stakeholders (natural persons) with regards to the processing of their personal data as a fundamental right. In this context, NICOSIA MARATHON, as Data Controller, complies with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679 – GDPR) and the national legislation, respects the rights and freedoms of the data subjects and secures that their personal data is:

- ❖ collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes, as these stated in the records of processing activities (data flow map) that NICOSIA MARATHON maintains
- ❖ processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner, based on consent, legitimate interest, legal obligation or contract performance
- ❖ stored safely to safeguard their confidentiality, integrity and availability.

All members of NICOSIA MARATHON personnel, associates, volunteers, as well as third parties that process personal data on behalf of the Federation are contractually committed to comply with the aforementioned framework.

It is important to note that the maintenance of archives of sport-event results and participants' performances for historical, statistical and informational purposes, lays within the ground of legitimate interests of NICOSIA MARATHON, as the Organizer of the Nicosia Marathon Run.

Data Transfers outside EU

Our aim is to restrict personal data transfers only to countries that have been deemed by the European Commission as destinations that provide an adequate level of protection for personal data; you may see the relevant decisions of the European Commission here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries_en. However, due to the global nature of sports, and in the context of participation of NICOSIA MARATHON athletes, trainers, and members of the Administrative Board in official delegations, it may be required to transfer personal data to other countries, under the provisions of the Article 49(1) of the GDPR.

Your Rights

According to the GDPR, you have the following rights toward the processing of your personal data:

- ❖ request to delete your data ('right to be forgotten'), if there is no legal obligation or claim, and do not relate with any official result of a sport event,
- ❖ access to your data,
- ❖ request to transfer your data to another Controller.
- ❖ correction of your data, in cases where the data we hold about you are incorrect or insufficient,
- ❖ withdraw your consent, in cases where consent is the legitimate basis for the processing of your data; please note that for races open to independent runners, this request must be made within the specific timelines as set in the application form which has to be read carefully,
- ❖ object to processing for a specific reason,
- ❖ request the restriction of the processing,

To exercise any of your rights, you can address the respective request to the Data Protection Officer of NICOSIA MARATHON (pls. see below 'Contact Person'). Our response to your request will take place within (1) one month of its receipt, unless an extension of up to two (2) months is required after having considered the complexity and the number of requests, and informed you in due time, accordingly. If you do not have a response to your request, you have the right to lodge a complaint to the Commissioner for Personal Data Protection (<http://www.dataprotection.gov.cy>).
